

Brian Lothridge

Coach Brian Lothridge was born and raised in Hickory Tavern, where he still lives today. He is a graduate of Laurens District 55 High School, class of 2003. He is also a graduate of Piedmont Tech in 2005, and Lander University in 2008. Coach Lothridge has been coaching at LDHS for 17 years, and teaching for 12. He is an avid outdoorsman that loves to hunt and fish. He believes that family is the ultimate key to life. "At the end of the day, the only thing that you're left with is family." Coach Brian Lothridge will continue coaching our Cornerbacks next year.

Subject you teach/Day job: US History/World History

Hometown: Hickory Tavern

College Alma Mater and degree: Piedmont Technical College (Associate's in Arts)
Lander University (Bachelor's of Science in History)

Family: Father: Curtis (deceased), Mother: Joanne, Sister: Susan (George), and two nieces: Carlee and Emma Grace

Favorite Food: Italian

Favorite restaurant in Laurens: House of Pizza

Favorite professional sports team(s): None, I'd rather watch college; Florida State would be my team

Most memorable moment while coaching: One year we started all of our seniors on defense for senior night. One the first series, one of the seniors, that did not get to play a whole lot, had an interception for a touchdown.