

Brian Strickland

A 28 year coaching veteran who graduated from The College of Charleston in 1992 and has 2 masters degrees from Walden University and Jacksonville State University. Coach Strickland began his coaching career at Walterboro High School in 1992. In 1995 he was promoted to offensive coordinator and the Bulldogs had a state championship runner up in 1995 and a state championship in 1997. In 2003 he moved to North Augusta High School and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2006. The Yellow Jackets won a region title in 2010 and enjoyed deep playoff runs in 2009 and 2010. He became the Head Coach at JL Mann High School in 2011 and remained in that capacity until 2016. After Brief stints at Riverside High and Carolina High in 2017 and 2018 he became the offensive coordinator at Greenwood High School in 2019. Coach Strickland and his wife Emily live in Simpsonville and they have 3 adult children Katie, Ryne, and Josh. They also have three grandchildren Micheal, Christain, and Penny.