

Lee Taylor

Coach Lee Taylor will begin his 32nd year of coaching football this fall. He began his career in the low country at Holly Hill Academy as the Athletic Director, Head Football Coach and Head Baseball Coach. Then he moved to Stall High School for 5 years as Defensive Coordinator. Coach Taylor then moved to Greenville in 1998 and coached at JL Mann for two years before taking the AD/Head Football position at Southside High School. In 2006 Coach Taylor went to Mauldin High School as Offensive Coordinator/Asst Head Coach. In 2013 he became the Head Coach there until 2017. As a head coach at Mauldin coach Taylor compiled a 26-20 record. In his career he has coached six quarterbacks that have gone on to play college football. Among them were Dre Massey who went on to play wide receiver at Florida and Josh McKie who continued his playing career at UNC. He has coached the past three years at Laurens and is looking forward to his new role as Offensive Coordinator for the 2020 season.
